

The Ruffed Grouse Society is forming a Chapter in Connecticut!

WHO ARE WE?

Established in 1961 the Ruffed Grouse Society (RGS) is the one international wildlife conservation organization dedicated to promoting conditions suitable for ruffed grouse, American woodcock and related wildlife to sustain our sport hunting tradition and outdoor heritage. Our members are mainly grouse and woodcock hunters who support national scientific conservation and management efforts to ensure the future of the species.

DUE TO THE INTEREST THAT HAS BEEN GENERATED AN ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING WILL BE HELD ON:

July 16 at 7:00 P.M.

Cabela's

475 East Hartford Boulevard North East Hartford, CT

COME JOIN US IN OUR EFFORTS.....

We will hear from:

Tripp Way: Northeast Regional Director, who will explain the mission of the Ruffed Grouse Society and the organization of individual chapters.

Andy Weik: Northeast Regional Biologist, who will talk about prospective goals for grouse and woodcock habitat in CT.

PLEASE RESPOND TO:

Bob Smith
(860) 304-1858

The cost is FREE!!! We will be serving refreshments.