

Where Inspiration Comes Naturally.

With rustic-chic lodging and modern meeting space, the Ralph A. MacMullan Conference Center combines the fun of summer camp with the facilities of a premier conference center. Nestled on the northern shore of Higgins Lake, this conference center has a 75-year legacy of conservation education and offers one of the most distinctive meeting experiences in Michigan's northern woods.

4TH ANNUAL WOODCOCK CELEBRATION/CHALLENGE

October 26-29, 2017

Ralph A. MacMullan Center
104 Conservation Drive
Roscommon Township, MI 48653

Join us for the American Woodcock Society's exciting 4th Annual Woodcock Celebration/Challenge at a new location as we are joining the International Woodcock Symposium which meets approximately every 10 years.

We will be joining them at the DNR RAM Center, Higgins Lake. Still the basic same area as our last three years so most of your hunting spots will be good. We will have the opportunity to meet with the world authorities on woodcock and hear their latest findings.

AMERICAN WOODCOCK  SOCIETY

Healthy Forests • Abundant Wildlife • Sporting Traditions

Limited to 36 participants.

Schedule of Events

Arrival on Thursday and registration.

Friday morning we will hunt. Lunch will be provided either in the field or at the lounge.

Friday afternoon will have an open session with the Symposium papers being presented in lay speak for everyone's benefit.

Friday evening we will host a joint dinner/banquet -- again offering a chance to share stories and questions with others.

Saturday will be our regular all-day hunt on public lands, no guides, but maps included.

Saturday evening will be the Awards Banquet with special hors d'oeuvres by "Gourmet Gone Wild".
