

MICHIGAN STATE WORKSHOP

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 2017 – 1 PM TO 5 PM

TREETOPS RESORT

3962 Wilkinson Road – Gaylord, MI 49735

An opportunity for Ruffed Grouse Society and American Woodcock Society Members to meet and compare notes on happenings in the region.

This workshop will feature presentations and discussions from RGS and AWS, Michigan Department of Natural Resources and Seney National Wildlife Refuge.

SCHEDULED PRESENTERS

JOHN EICHINGER – President and CEO of The Ruffed Grouse Society

DR. R. GREGORY CORACE III – Wildlife Ecologist from the Seney National Wildlife Refuge

AL STEWART – Michigan DNR Upland Bird Specialist

FRITZ AND RIC HELLER – Discussing hunting and training of dogs to pursue birds.

MARK FOUTS – RGS and AWS Director of Member Relations and Outreach

AND OTHERS TO BE ANNOUNCED!

RSVP

To help us determine room size, please respond to Terry Lamb by February 1, 2017 at 248-946-1796 or TerryL@ruffedgrousesociety.org

Walk-ins welcome. Refreshments will be provided. There is no cost to attend the event.