

Ruffed Grouse Society and American Woodcock Society
Inaugural Continental Pheasant Shoot

February 23rd, 2017
Reserve Early – First-Come, First-Served!

You are invited to our Inaugural continental pheasant shoot.

When: Thursday – February 23rd, 2017 -- 9am-2pm, including lunch.

Where: Private Hunting Preserve in Pleasant Prairie, WI (close to the Illinois/Wisconsin border). Directions will be sent, with acknowledgment of payment received.

License, bird processing, and possession limit: A license is not needed (WI game farm). Harvested birds will be collected, cleaned and available after lunch for taking home by participants wishing to do so. There is no possession limit. We will be releasing 750 plus pheasants!

Time: We will meet at 9am for Coffee/Doughnuts. The mandatory safety briefing will begin at 9:30am. After the hunt, we will eat, drink and have a small raffle or auction items.

Shotgun and shells: Please bring your own shotgun and four to six boxes of shells (6's are good).

Questions: David Johnson (715) 492-5858 (cell) davej@ruffedgrousesociety.org, or Mark Fouts (715) 399-2270 (office) markf@ruffedgrousesociety.org

Cost: The cost of the hunt is $400 plus a $100 donation to Ruffed Grouse Society. Please return this information slip along with your check or credit card (made payable to Ruffed Grouse Society) for $500 per shooter. This cost includes birds, the staff to run the hunt, coffee/doughnuts, lunch and bird cleaning.
