

At the Cadillac Grill @ the Eldorado golf course near Cadillac, MI.

A Gathering of Upland Hunters II

A discussion of birds, dogs, habitat, and those who appreciate them

Saturday March 24, 2018 2-5pm

Admission $25 Limited Seating

Children under 16 free with paid adult

Featured Speakers

Justin McGrail: From Black Creek dog training center, Justin is one of the foremost authorities on training bird dogs! Justin talks about the do's, don'ts and reasons behind them.

Glen Blackwood: Longtime writer for Upland Almanac magazine! Glen will discuss the best literature for grouse and woodcock Ron Boehme: Ron has interviewed hunters, trainers, breeders all over the country! His "Hunting dog podcast" covers numerous topics including different dog breeds & game. His topic "We are social hunters".

Dennis Gulau: A seasoned Michigan hunter shares a few tips on finding Grouse Cover and making the best of it.

Dave Veldman: From Sport Dog photography, Dave gives us a few quick tips on field photography.

Carl Johnson: Birddogs and trappers - how to work together for the common good & real life info on traps

Marty Sarrault: President of the Michigan Sharptailed Grouse Association, discusses habitat, hunting and management of Sharptails in Michigan

Randy Prichard: From Blue Magazine, Randy is our event MC and will present a special reading.

All proceeds from this event go to the RGS Drummer Fund!

To reserve seats call Jeff Secor at (616) 662-9154
For more information please visit uplandgathering.com

Door Prizes!